

Ms Lisa Holm
 Austrian National Tourist Office
 9-11 Richmond Buildings
 Off Dean Street
 London
 W1D 3HF
 BY COURIER

Media
Daily Mail Ski & Snowboard Magazine

Date: March - April 2008
 Type: General Consumer
 Frequency: 6/Per year
 Circulation: 14685 (ABC)
 MediaDisk Ref: U75G-100
 Page: 12

Look
Need a global view?

90+ Countries,
 55,000+ publications,
 one Cision contact

Call 0870 736 0020
 for more information

Order
 252300001
Austria Tour/67

LMC4 4 2062
 Page 1(1)
 O 153 31-1 b

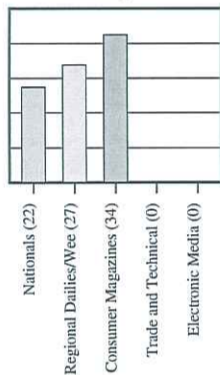

National Publication

Position on Page

Monthly Yield

Cuttings by Media type sent in February

This cutting will be charged on our invoice for the month of February

SHORT TURNS

Supermarket sweep

Internet shopping has arrived in the Alps, via the happy shoppers at www.snowmans-larder.co.uk. If you're self catering in Val d'Isère or Tignes, just browse the online aisles, pick a delivery time and they do the rest. And it'll cost less than in resort or you get money back.

Keep it in the family

Austrian Kinderhotels (0845 082 2422; www.kinderhotels.co.uk) are ideal for budget aware families. A full-board week for a family of three starts at £955, including lift passes, transfers, use of kiddie apparatus like buggies, childcare, and ski courses for the children.

Hands up for more skills

Nonstop Ski & Snowboard (0870 241 8070; www.nonstopski.com) has a new string to its instructor course bow – an improvement camp in Fernie, from 1 to 15 March, focusing on off-piste technique plus safety training. From £2300 with flights, transfers and lift pass.

For the greater good

Can a weekend freezing one's nuts off in Tamworth SnowDome help prepare a man for skiing 590km to the North Pole in aid of Cancer Research? Oliver Corbett (on right), usually a city worker, sure hopes so. Help him at www.justgiving.com.

This cutting is reproduced by Cision UK Limited under licence from the printing of digital cuttings), digital reproduction or forwarding is newspapers), CLA, www.cla.co.uk (for books and magazines) or other.

No further copying (including the NLA, www.nla.co.uk (for